Hi Jacquie,

This is the first that I've seen this communication. There is really nothing new to report since the inquiry on this changeover back in February (see attached).

Best wishes,
Heather

Hi - I was out of the office yesterday and am working now to draft an update on the Washington Works facility PFC issues. The DuPont Washington Works facility is located in West Virginia. Also, this is a written request for records and should be forwarded to our FOIA office for processing and assignment. Thanks-Jacquie
